WHAT YOU NEED:

Looking for a little gift to make someone smile? Want a never ending prompt to spark your child's creative writing? Try a Dandelion Magic, Magical Wish Jar!

STEP 1.

Take your note card and design a label. You may want to write

WISH JAR or draw a flower border, or draw pictures, or write the names of some things you want to wish for.

STEP 2.

Use the masking tape to tape the label to your jar. Use several strips, completely covering the notecard, so your artwork is safe and waterproof.

STEP 3.

Skip into a grassy field on a warm Spring day and pick some dandelions. Help your child cut off the fluffy white part of the dandelion and drop it into your jar. Continue until your jar is full of magical dandelions.

STEP 4.

Brighten someone's day by gifting this jar—or store it on a shelf to use as a writing prompt when your child is stuck. Tell them to look inside, make a wish, & write about it.
